Rich atmospheric keyboard and vocal jazz Mozes and Kaltenecker – FUTURIZED: You wouldn't believe some of the splendid music we get in here for review... this 17 November, 2023 release is a "deluxe" edition based on their earlier album of the same name, with rich atmospheric keyboard and vocal jazz... to get a feel for their totally mesmerizing performance style, I (most STRONGLY) recommend that you watch and listen to their 2022 performance of the 4:20 "Blade"...

If, like me, you can't resist the attraction of ethereal vocal and keyboard work, you should SUBSCRIBE to the Mozes and Kaltenecker YouTube channel... I signed on immediately.

Listening through the album for the third time, I had no difficulty in making my choice for personal favorite of the eleven exciting performances... "Deux Entrées" absolutely blew me away... a most intriguing sonic exploration of portals – to alternate universes... EXCELLENT, folks!

I don't often say this, but this is one of the BEST albums I've listened to (yet) in 2023... it is MOST STRONGLY RECOMMENDED, with an "EQ" (energy quotient) score of 4.99. Get more information about the new release as it is posted on their Spotify page for the original album.
