

Andreas Schaerer - Perpetual Dream 3/3

O's Notes: Free style vocalist Andreas Schaerer teams up with the ARTE (saxophone) Quartet and bassist Wolfgang Zwiauer for Perpetual Delirium. They combine contemporary classical music with loosely structured jazz and a subtle funky groove. Andreas incorporates chants, seats, rap and vocalization of many instrument into his unique style. It marries well with the sax team as well a with Zwiauer's contemporary swing. This is an ambitious effort that is worth consideration for open minded, inquisitive listeners.

D. Oscar Groomes

O's Place Jazz Ruler™

Traditional

Contemporary

1900

1920

1940

1960

1970

1980

2000

Ragtime T^R

Blues&Ballads T^b

Bebop T^B

Latin T^L

Fusion C^F

Funk C^f

Acid C^A

Dixie T^D

Swing T^S

Big Band T^N

Free T^A

R&B+Jazz C^R

Pop+Jazz C^P

O's Place Jazz is a quarterly digital jazz magazine and weekly web site featuring concise unbiased reviews of the latest jazz and blues. We do not include any advertising. We focus on an audiophile and professional community across the US with some subscribers also in Europe and South America. We have been around for over twenty years with a circulation of about 5000. Our motto: "Sound Advice at a nice price."

Click on the Top 5 Traditional Jazz Reviews or Top 5 Contemporary Jazz Reviews to view the top 5 albums for this week.