Budapest, 28 December 2015

and 19 January 2016

This is a very pleasant, very old-fashioned sounding CD. Right out of the 60s. The tunes are nice, often using a blues structure. The solos by Agoston and Muranyi are always right on and the rhythm team offers great support.

I do wish Pengo and Harsagy had some solo space, given their great support work. AS a drummer I enjoyed Harsagy's accompaniments. He was busy but not intrusive.

Not sure what else to say. This is for lovers of old sounding music with a fresh touch.
